ABOUT OLIVIA YAO JEWELLERY

Rooted in a multidisciplinary craft background—spanning ceramics to metalsmithing—founder Olivia honed her vision with a Master's in silversmithing from Birmingham and experience in the heart of London's fashion scene.

Her designs blend Taiwan's island heritage—pearls, oceans, and woven textures—with delicate metal finishes, bringing an understated Asian aesthetic to contemporary daily jewellery.

Today, OLIVIA YAO JEWELLERY operates seven storefronts across Taiwan. In 2020, the brand expanded with OLIVIA YAO FINE JEWELLERY, offering bespoke creations and sustainable heirloom redesigns tailored to each patron's story.

ABOUT FOUNDER AND DESIGNER

Olivia Yao grew up surrounded by jewellery craftsmanship, becoming familiar with every step of the process—from sketching and wax carving to setting and polishing. While studying Economics at National Taiwan University, she also trained in metalsmithing and became a GIA Graduate Gemologist.

She later pursued a Master's degree in Jewellery Design in the UK and worked with London-based jewellery designers, where fashion and contemporary art further shaped her creative perspective.

Inspired by gemstones, travel, and different cultures, Olivia brings together refined craftsmanship and East Asian sensibility to create expressive contemporary jewellery.

CAST IN MOTION

The Cast in Motion series draws inspiration from 20th-century floral artist Constance Spry, who challenged conventional ideas of beauty through wild and unexpected materials. Continuing her spirit, the collection develops three design languages—Vessel, Scroll, and Bramble—combining sculpted metal with natural gemstones to capture movement and light.

Vessel shapes soft folds in metal; Scroll transforms crescent curves and chainmail into fluid lines; Bramble intertwines metal and gemstones in thorn-like structures. Balancing strength and softness, Cast in Motion expresses movement, individuality, and energy.

"Beauty is not an aesthetic. It's an energy."

WILD & SOFT

The Wild & Soft series is divided into four chapters, using the tactile sensations and materials of metalwork to depict different emotional transitions: the resolute "Fierce", the gentle "Soft", the everyday brilliance of "Sparkle", and the peaceful composure of "Quiet". The designs feature seemingly heavy and sharp metals paired with soft and elegant pearls as the primary materials, breaking the conventional boundaries of these materials to create jewellery that appears substantial yet lightweight, rigid yet soft.

Our metalworking team continues to explore materials deeply, breaking the boundaries between "light and heavy" and pushing the limits of design to reflect the core concept of Wild & Soft.

03 OLI

After four years traveling and absorbing the inspiration around the globe, Olivia Yao Jewellery looks back to its origin, the small Island "Taiwan" surrounded by the Pacific Ocean, and transforms the beauty of the sea into its latest collection - Oli.

Bearing the meaning of coming back from the sea, OYJ's Oli collection pieces are inspired by five different elements: pearl, wave, shell, coral and seaweed. Wavy shape and uneven surface creating soft and organic lines, these jewels represent the treasure discovered from the sea, being collected, and brought back home.
