

MAISON
La GRIFFE

Our VALUES

Excellence

Every detail counts. From material selection to finishing stitches, our silent rigor ensures quality and durability.

Creativity

Bespoke craftsmanship is rooted in imagination. Each project is a blank canvas where textures, shapes and colors find their harmony.

Bespoke

At the heart of the Maison lies attentive listening. Each request is studied, drawn and shaped in close dialogue with the client, resulting in creations that truly reflect them.

Elegance

Elegance reveals itself in the purity of a line, the precision of a gesture, the nobility of a material — a discreet beauty that defines Maison La Griffe.

Craftsmanship

With over thirty years of expertise, the Maison perpetuates the meticulous gestures of French leathercraft — a living heritage driven by passion, transmission and the pursuit of perfection.

Authenticity

Each piece reflects the sincerity of a handmade gesture, a noble material, a genuine story. Nothing is overstated — everything is crafted by hand, crafted with intention.

Trust

For decades, the Maison has built solid relationships with its clients. Trust is the foundation of any lasting partnership — the one that allows us to go further, together.

Discretion

Maison La Griffe works with absolute confidentiality. Its creations enhance exceptional houses without ever overshadowing them — a soft form of luxury, shaped in the shadows to shine in the light.

Responsibility

Loving the material means respecting the artisans who shape it and the land that offers it. The Maison is committed to thoughtful, sustainable production rooted in its territory.
