

CERÁMICA NUA

MARIAM LOPEZ

Heart and soul of Nua, with an open and curious mind, Mariam began her journey in the world of ceramics 14 years ago.

Her early pieces—inspired by the cultural heritage of her hometown, Granada—still accompany travelers and visitors to the Alhambra, allowing them to take home a small piece of that fairytale palace.

Today, she has create a strong and established brand within the Spanish cultural and commercial landscape, with a presence in some of the country's most prestigious venues. Her work can be found in the shops at La Pedrera and the Casa Lis Museum in Salamanca, the official Alhambra shops in Granada, and various concept stores and design spaces in Barcelona, Seville, and Switzerland, among other locations. This track record reflects not only the quality of the product but also the trust that institutions and specialized buyers have placed in the brand.

OUR STORY

Cerámica Nua was founded in Sant Cugat, Barcelona, in 2018 with the aim of creating authentic handcrafted objects that connect people with places, stories, and materials. Over the years, Cerámica Nua has refined its distinctive style. Early pieces—charged with energy and a spirit of exploration—have given way to work that is increasingly precise and intentional, featuring more refined lines and meticulous finishes. It is the natural evolution of a brand that has never stopped learning the craft and now offers a visually mature, recognizable, and cohesive body of work.
