Landolfi or Gandolfi? It all depends on your neighbourhood or village.

Behind this distinctly southern name lies a fictional Marseillais who supposedly left for Paris and never returned to Marseille. Often, when a local returns from Paris, they are asked:

"So, did you see Landolfi?"

About Us

Maison Landolfi offers souvenirs and illustrations to gift, decorate, and originally represent symbolic places across our region. Journey through your memories of Provence. High quality, Made in France prints to enhance your interior.

— Publishing house for illustrations in a variety of styles —

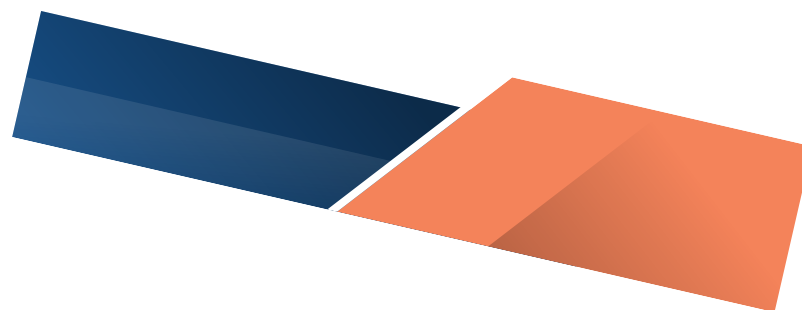

Maison Landolfi caters to those who love their region (with a touch of local pride!), offering highly local posters, alongside the must-haves.

At Maison Landolfi, we offer original illustrated posters celebrating iconic towns and places, printed to a high quality.

Our range also includes personalised posters, as well as merchandise (postcards, magnets, puzzles, accessories) created from our artwork.

All our products reflect our artistic universe and our dedication to local identity.

How We Work

Maison Landolfi is a family-owned business based in Marseille, in the south of France.

Our posters are inspired by our predominantly local clients.

Our posters are designed and printed in Provence.

Our posters are giclée printed on 230gsm matte fine art paper, which is PEFC certified. We deliver the posters in blister packaging with a white cardboard backing and our logo.
