

JOIDART

BARCELONA

A FAMILY STORY

Founded by Jaume Julià, JOIDART was born from a small goldsmith workshop that evolved into a universe of contemporary jewelry. Today, under the leadership of Cristina and Mariona Julià, we continue weaving this legacy with passion and innovation.

THE MEDITERRANEAN AND ART, OUR INSPIRATION

Since 1981, we have been creating jewelry with a Mediterranean spirit, inspired by art and nature. Each piece is a dialogue between tradition and creativity.

The light of the Mediterranean, the shapes of nature, the imprint of artists like Miró, Gaudí, Dalí... From all this, our creations emerge—timeless jewelry with a soul.

CRAFTSMAN'S TRADE

Each piece is handcrafted in our workshop on the Costa Brava, following artisanal goldsmith techniques and environmentally friendly processes. We create unique jewelry in small series, with a value that transcends time.

IMMEDIATE SHIPPING, PERSONALIZED ATTENTION

With more than 500 points of sale, our jewelry travels from Barcelona to Europe, the USA, Japan, Australia, and New Zealand, finding homes in select spaces that share our sensitivity for art and design.

NEW COLLECTIONS EVERY 3 MONTHS

Our universe transforms and evolves. Constantly, we present new jewelry, created by emerging artists and designers who bring freshness and authenticity to each piece.

AN AGILE AND INTUITIVE DIGITAL PLATFORM

To facilitate management, we have created a professional, agile, and simple website, designed to make ordering as fluid as the inspiration of an artist in the creative process.

We believe in personalized and close attention. We have a stock-based service that allows us to guarantee fast shipping within 24-48 hours, so the jewelry arrives without delay.

JEWELRY IN MUSEUMS

Our designs are found in iconic spaces such as the Reina Sofia Museum in Madrid, the Tate or Royal Academy of Arts in London, Casa Batlló in Barcelona, and the Dalí Museum in Florida. Museums are a window that connects our jewelry with the world of art.

A COMMITMENT TO BEAUTY & AUTHENTICITY

Each JOIDART piece carries within it a story, a trace of creativity and craftsmanship. We create for those who value imperfect beauty, the magic of details, and the essence of authenticity.
