My Drap designs disposable natural fiber textile solutions that combine cutting-edge design, functionality and manufacturing precision

Pioneers in disposable textiles

We were the first to create a disposable textile with purpose, blending sustainability, eye appeal and practicality.

Every piece is made in our Barcelona factory where we oversee every step of the process from design to production.

Exclusive Seamless technology

No seams or threads. A textile innovation developed exclusively by Texia that ensures clean, precise finishes.

Natural fibers

100% cotton, recycled cotton and linen. Materials of natural origin with hypoallergenic properties.

Eye appeal and presence

Refined textiles that bring order, elegance, and visual harmony to every table or space.

Thoughtfully crafted textiles for effortless service

Customization

Each piece adapts to your venue’s identity: colors, logos, messages and formats.

Hygiene and ease of use

Our disposable format ensures an elevated sense of cleanliness while simplifying everyday tasks.

Streamlined efficiency

Cuts out washing, ironing, and quality checks, saving time and reducing logistics expenses.

Sustainability

Compostable products crafted from natural fibers.
International certifications affirm our commitment to the environment.

A textile manufacturer with design vision

My Drap designs disposable natural fiber textiles that combine everyday functionality with attention to detail.

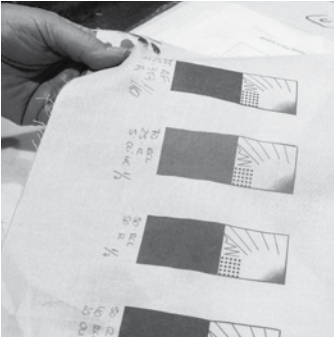

Each piece is manufactured in Barcelona using our proprietary processes that prioritize quality, innovation and sustainability.

Texia, the industrial group behind My Drap

My Drap is part of Texia, a family-owned textile group based in Barcelona founded in 1917.

Texia combines industrial experience, expert design and in-house production through brands such as:

- Roll Drap, the choice of professionals.
- Athos, with a more crafted feel.
- TEXIA Finishing, specializing in textile preparation, finishing, printing, and dyeing.

Recycled, compostable natural fibers. Materials that return to the earth, leaving no waste behind

We produce locally in our factory in Barcelona, where we oversee every stage of production to ensure they meet our criteria for efficiency and sustainability:

- Our exclusive Seamless technology eliminates the need for seams and threads.
- A part of the energy we use is renewable.
- We treat and purify our own wastewater.
- We perform annual atmospheric emission checks.
- We use residual heat from our textile lines to reduce our gas consumption.
- And every year, we improve our waste segregation, recycling and recovery.

International certifications affirm our authentic commitment to the environment
